

Fashion Revue Description Form

Contestant #

Age: _____

Project Level: _____

Number of Years in Project: _____

Cost of Garment: $ _____

Accessories:

Mark One:

_____ Beginner, Age 7-9

_____ Girls Buymanship

_____ Simple Garment (11 & under)

_____ Junior, Age 10-13

_____ Boys Buymanship

_____ Casual Outfit

_____ Senior, Age 14-19

_____ Clothing Construction

_____ School Outfit

_____ Western Outfit

_____ Dress Outfit

_____ Other

Script

Add anything special you want to have known about your project when you write your script. Did you choose it for any special occasion? What special things did you learn? List any problems, fun parts or funny things you had in selecting this garment, etc.

Sample Scripts

Sandy Day needed something elegant to wear to her aunt's evening wedding this fall. When she found this blouse on sale she fell in love with the romantic collar and pearl buttons, as well as the full sleeves and ruffled cuffs. Sandy chose black velveteen for a simple skirt and a lace sash to accent the waist. Her gold earrings and black suede flats complete the look. Believe it or not, she put this beautiful ensemble together for less than $30.00.

Melanie Schultz wanted a cool crisp casual look, nothing too fancy or sloppy. The light green is a new color choice for her -- she likes the green because it brings out the green in her eyes. Melanie plans to wear this outfit to school where she will be a sixth grader.

The set-in sleeves were the hardest part for her to do on this outfit. She had the most fun picking out the pattern and material, as well as working with her Granny.

Melanie has had a very busy summer trying to keep up with eight 4-H projects. She is the daughter of Sara and Sam Schultz.

Stephanie Gant, daughter of Barb and Chuck Gant, enjoys camping and fishing during the summer months. She made this bright print shorts outfit with lace trim to get her through the hot days. She has accented her outfit with hot-pink tennis shoes, pink ruffled socks and a hot-pink headband.

This is Stephanie's first year in clothing and she has learned much with the help of Daisy Becker, her project leader. She is a member of the Buffalo Beacon Lights 4-H Club of Hugoton.

Danny Lianro will be stepping in style this evening in a white, long-sleeved shirt and black dress pants. He has brought this outfit to life with a black and white silk tie and black suspenders. He completed the look with black dress shoes. Danny had a lot of fun picking this outfit because he had three friends along with three different opinions! He is very pleased with his selection and feels he can wear it to church and dress-up occasions at school. Danny will be a sophomore at Moscow High School, and is the son of Melody and Kevin Lianro.